RM2 Announces pallet deployment with PPG Industries, Inc

RM2 International (“RM2” or the “Company”), the vertically-integrated innovator in pallet development, manufacture, supply and management, is pleased to announce that it has received a commitment from PPG Industries, Inc. ((NYSE:PPG) and “PPG”) an S&P 500/Fortune 200 company for the deployment of RM2 pallets. RM2 expects this deployment, which begins immediately, to exceed 250,000 of BLOCKPal™ pallets and to take place in stages across various business units and geographical areas.

Chief Executive Officer of RM2, John Walsh, commented:

“This substantial relationship is further evidence of the benefits the RM2 BLOCKPal™ brings to major corporations across all industry sectors. RM2 is proud to be working in partnership with PPG, helping them to improve efficiencies, achieve sustainability goals and deliver significant savings across large parts of their supply chain.”

Viktoras R. Sekmakas, Executive Vice President of PPG commented:

“Deployment of the RM2 BLOCKPal™ will improve PPG’s efficiencies and help us to achieve our sustainability mandate. The exceptional strength, durability and handling characteristics of the BLOCKPal™ make RM2 a valuable partner for PPG.”
